

Plan Start Next Week On Reconstruction Of Main St.

Plans Announced At Public Meeting Held Monday Night

The Warren Paving company is expected to start work on Main St. the first part of next week. The Main St. project which Newmarket ratepayers voted for last fall, calls for all new roadbed, pavement, sidewalks, curbs, gutters and services. It will not halt pedestrian traffic to any great extent and there will be hardly any obstruction at store entrances during the project.

Vehicular traffic may be suspended for 48 hours in the business section or from six to eight days, depending on the type of concrete used in the roadbed.

A special meeting of Main St. property owners and other interested citizens was held at the council chambers on Monday evening. Town Engineer Denne Bosworth explained how the width of sidewalks would be changed on various sections of Main St. from Water St. to Davis Drive. Members of a special committee of council also attended with J. B. Waterhouse of the Warren Paving Co. who explained how the project would be carried out in stages.

Business Blocks First

The first part of the construction will be on the business section, from Water St. to the top of the Main St. hill at the new fire hall. Sidewalks will be laid first. Mr. Waterhouse said sidewalks will be laid from Water to Millard Ave. on one side of the street, probably the west first, then the other side of the street.

"Pedestrians will be able to walk on the concrete sidewalks the day after they are laid. Planks will be put over walks at store entrances and traffic into stores will be delayed only for a few hours," Mr. Waterhouse said.

Excavation of the old roadbed will come next, from Water to Millard, followed closely by graveling. Vehicular traffic will be re-routed one block at a time at this stage. Concrete will be poured from Water to Millard in one operation. Traffic, however will be open on Timothy St., crossing Main St. until close to the end of the project.

Whether or not the town would use a special cement for the roadbed concrete was not definitely decided this week. The more expensive type of cement would cost 60 cents more per yard and would mean a seven day halt for vehicular traffic on Main St. The cheaper cement would mean a $10,000 saving for the town and would only stop traffic for 48 hours.

The engineer said that he did not think the expensive cement would be worth the extra cost. Mr. Waterhouse also expressed an opinion against the more expensive material.

Mr. Waterhouse said that employees of the company would co-operate in every way with the merchants on Main St. The engineer said, "We are going to do everything possible to reduce the inconvenience to people on Main St. and to other people in the town as a whole. Mr. Waterhouse's company will do everything it can to make it easier for everyone."

"I think you will be surprised at the little amount of inconvenience during the project," said Mr. Waterhouse. He referred to other towns such as Kitchener which had complete face-lifting jobs done on their main streets. "But naturally we expect many complaints. It is only human nature to complain," he said.

No Time Estimate

Mr. Waterhouse would not make any promises about the length of time Main St. will be tied up with the project.

"It all depends on these services," he said. If workmen run into trouble with municipal services, sewers and water mains, it may hold up the entire project for a period of time. Construction will carry on into the summer months at least.

All present water services will be replaced by copper pipes, according to the engineer. He asked that all owners or tenants report any trouble they have had with sewers to the engineer.

The width of sidewalks will vary but in most places along the business section they will be narrower. At the north end, between Ontario St. and Davis Drive, they will be wider. Store fronts are so irregular that it would be impossible to keep a uniform width of sidewalk, according to the engineer.

The narrowest portion of sidewalk will be in front of Dawson's store, across from the Post Office. The sidewalk will be so narrow there that parking meters will be removed. There will be a "no parking" area at this point so that traffic will have more room to turn from Park Ave. onto Main St.

Most store owners and tenants were given the exact width of sidewalk in front of their stores in feet and inches, when they questioned the engineer, Mr. Bosworth. Showing the inconsistent sidewalk width, the engineer said that sidewalk in front of Pollock's shoe store would be 7 feet, Smith's hardware, 9 feet 6 inches, Chainway, 9 feet, Post Office 5 feet 6 inches and Jack Franks' store 7 feet 9 inches.

Town Appraisals
The Main St. project committee has appointed an appraiser who will buy any required property for the town, make financial settlements for any claims against the town during the project.

Parking meters will be placed 10 inches from curbs instead of 18 inches, to conserve sidewalk space. Dual type meters will be considered. Two meters may be placed on one post. New street light fixtures will be installed on north Main St. to Ontario St.

CORONATION PREPARATIONS

Let's Fly Flags But Display Them Correctly, Says Legion

In preparation for the coming coronation season, Paul Tobey, president of the Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion asks residents of Newmarket "to look around their homes for bunting, Jacks, Canadian Ensigns, crowns and coats of arms and let's decorate our homes as they have never been done before for a coronation day."

The Legion president gives a timely reminder about the flying of flags and how they should be displayed correctly.

During the month of March there were occasions to fly the flag at half mast and in many cases, the flags were too low on poles. A flag flown at half mast is the universal symbol of mourning. The flag should be raised to the top of the pole, then slowly lowered a distance equal to its own width, the president points out.

At public meetings, the flag should be displayed above and behind the speaker but should never be used as a drape for a table or platform. Nothing should be placed on it.

When groups with other flags displayed from their own flag should be the center and the highest pole of the group.

colors are displayed in a church or other buildings, the Union Jack should always be on the observer's left.

When a flag is displayed in a manner other than being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat. When drapings or festoons are required, bunting should be used but not the flag itself, except as a centre of a decorative scheme and then it should not be placed lower than a person seated.

In street decorations, the flag should be hung so that it points north on streets running east and west and east on streets running north and south.

In church the Queen's Colors (Union Jack) should be on a staff and on the congregation's right, if on the main floor, and on the minister's right if on the platform.

When standards are draped on occasions of a memorial or funeral service, proper mourning ribbons should be used and six inches wide is used for the bow below the name on the head of the standard.

These standards for the Legion will be used for all coronation and memorial services and should be followed by all groups and individuals.

NEPHEW KILLED

R. G. Elliott, Gorham St., Newmarket, received word this week that his nephew, Lance Corporal Roy Douglas Elliott, Bracebridge, was killed in action in Korea on Friday, April 17.

Chamber Of Commerce Formed For Newmarket Elect Alex McKay Pres.

A chamber of commerce was formed on Tuesday night at a meeting of Newmarket businessmen held at the agricultural board rooms. Alex McKay, manager of the Newmarket branch of the Bank of Toronto, was elected president of the new chamber.

"The chamber was formed after several months of ground work. The membership totals 50. Most of the new members had subscribed to a special account called the 'Newmarket Community Suspense Account' until the organization was formed. When the chamber was formed the subscriptions were designated as fees. In this way the chamber had a guaranteed membership and fees collected before it was formed."

J. E. Struthers was elected vice president and Ronald Blaxley was named secretary-treasurer. Mr. Blaxley had done most of the organizational work on behalf of interested businessmen. R. C. Morrison, Peter Gorman, Murray Roberts and Dick Rupke were elected directors and two more directors will be appointed at the next meeting.

Special speaker at the meeting was K. A. Grant of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce. In the course of his address, he referred to the four branches of activity in which chambers of commerce may be engaged: agricultural, civic, industrial and commercial.

He suggested sales courses for store assistants which would result in better service to farmers and other consumers. He suggested a retailer's night in which mutual problems could be discussed in a friendly manner.

"Industries are looking for towns that will provide good schools, houses, churches, water and hydro. The trend is towards smaller towns, he said.

Mr. Grant suggested that the town of Newmarket attempt to attract industries allied with existing industries. "If, for example, the Office Specialty company uses bearings, then you should encourage that sort of

Here, There Around Town

By Local Observer

Last Thursday we were told by Golden Glow that she'd seen some wild geese that afternoon and they were flying south.

"I could hear their loud honking so I naturally 'looked up,' she said. 'My goodness, was I surprised when I saw that they were flying south. You know what that means?'"

"No, afraid not," we answered. "Look out for winter," was her comment.

We smiled and thought that there was little likelihood of such a thing happening at this date. But, what did we have over the weekend if it wasn't winter? Guess that establishes Golden Glow as a first class weather forecaster.

At a recent council meeting, a letter was read from the Parent-Teacher association, St. John's Chrysostom school. It concerned the placing of a guard at the corner of Main and Ontario Sts. for the safety of the school children crossing that busy intersection. The matter was referred to the police committee.

A similar request from parents in the Armitage Heights subdivision resulted in a guard being placed at the corner of Eagle and Lorne Sts. at the town's expense.

Local observer feels that such policing of busy intersections is very necessary. But the question is raised as to whether the present set-up is the best. In Toronto we have noticed at many street corners in school areas that older boys and girls, pupils in grades 7 and 8 have assumed these duties. If such a system works there, why shouldn't it work in Newmarket?

Perhaps this is a phase of work which a local service club could sponsor. They could instruct the youngsters in their duties and provide some official cap, badge or sash for their identification. If the patrolling of busy intersections in school areas was done on this volunteer basis, it would be a saving to the taxpayers who are paying $500 for the present service at Eagle St.

Youngsters in their early teens are aware of the traffic dangers at such intersections. They should be as familiar with the safety rules that they could assume the responsibility for the safe crossing of small children to and from school. Why not let them accept this trust?

Four generations of one family attended church service together. That may not be a record, but we imagine that there have not been too many instances when it has happened. Joseph Evans, 92 this year with his son, the late, Arthur Evans, attended service at St. Paul's Anglican church. They were accompanied by Mr. Evans, Sr.'s grandson, Harold Evans, and his great-grandson, ten year old George.

RATEPAYERS' MEETING

A second meeting of the Newmarket ratepayers' association will be held at the fire hall auditorium on Thursday evening, April 30. Newmarket's deputy-revee, Herbert Gladman, will speak on the town's 1953 budget.

It will be the last meeting of the ratepayers' association until the fall.

Margaret Cullen, Newmarket, was chosen Queen of the Spring Prom by the students of Newmarket high school. She was crowned at the high school's social event of the year last Friday night. It is not a beauty contest. The winner must be a good student and have personality as well. Don Budd, president of the school council, who crowned the Queen says, "This sovereignty is a great honor and testifies to the high esteem in which the Queen is held by fellow students."

FOR RICH OR POOR

Big Day At Hand, Trout Season Opener

More than 100,000 resident and non-resident anglers are expected to open the speckled trout season in Ontario on May 1. They will use fishing tackle valued in the millions of dollars. As an example, one Toronto sportsman has more than $5,000 invested in fly-rods, lines and an assortment of more than 5,000 flies and other paraphernalia used by crack anglers. Yet, in the best Frank Walton tradition, some freckle-faced youngster armed only with an alder pole, string line and nut-laden hook probably will walk off with the principal prize in one of the angling contests which are always a feature of "opening day."

This year, following a record mild winter, in Southern Ontario at least, streams are expected to be at mid-season levels. This means that trout may be taken on streamer or wet flies and even, if the weather is very warm, on dry flies. In the extreme north, however, there will still be 'ice' on the lakes and 'bait' will be preferred. Reluctant to give the speckled trout his technical name, has been sought by anglers for hundreds of years. He may weigh, in extreme cases, as much as seven or eight pounds, in which case he usually will have come from Lake Nipigon or the Nipigon River, although it is claimed that larger trout may be found in more isolated parts of the province. In any event, the world's record trout came from the Nipigon River. It weighed 141 pounds and was caught in 1915 by the late Dr. J. W. Cook, Port Arthur.

Generally, in Southern Ontario, a speckled trout weighing three pounds or thereabouts will take the prizes. Most of the fish, stream-caught, may be just over the seven-inch limit.

Fishing for square-tails is, or is not, a very involved procedure. The fly fishermen devote their angling entirely to small tufts of feathers or hair concealing the hook. The dry fly floats on the surface of the water; the wet fly is submerged and usually resembles a live minnow. But speckled trout may also be taken on small plugs and spinners; either cast from a bait rod or trolled behind a boat. Spinning tackle, a relatively new method on this continent, is now very popular. With the spinning rod and special reel and lines, an angler finds it quite easy to toss a bait 100 feet or more.

Then, of course, there is still-fishing, "worm dunking" as it may be scornfully termed, but still a very deadly method. This involves merely the lowering of a bait-laden hook, using worms, minnows, frogs, grasshoppers and even bacon rind before a hungry trout.

Most attractive feature of May 1 in Ontario is that it signals the approach of the game fish period. Many fishermen previously have "rehearsed" on suckers, smelt and the perch runs. But, once the speckled trout season opens, the pickering fishing follows on May 15 and it isn't long until bass and muskies may be taken.

Many streams in Ontario already have been stocked with fish from the hatcheries operated by the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests. Some of these fish are yearlings, seven inches or longer. Many of these will be caught on opening day, but there still will be lots left to grow bigger and better for next year.

Pages from the Editor's Notebook

The members of the staff of the Era and Express were saddened this week by the sudden death of Albert Seitz, pressman.

Not many readers would know Albert Seitz. He was for many years a loyal employee of the Era and Express and it was Albert who was responsible for the printing of our newspaper each week. He was a part of the Era and Express and his job was as essential as the editor's. That is why we want to write about him in this column.

Much is said about great men who possess such qualities as loyalty, a sense of duty and an unflinching adherence to principles they adopt. Without these qualities, great men would not be what they are. "Little men" possess the same qualities and society owes as much to them, yet we don't hear about them.

Albert Seitz felt that his job was as important as any other job in the Era and Express or in the community. He felt that it was his duty to print a newspaper on a big press and his duty came first, before his own personal problems or anyone else's and without regard for any inconvenience to himself.

He was faithful to his job, his friends, and loyal to this firm which employed him. Without persons like Albert Seitz, our society would have no foundation. We may call them "little men" but they are the really great people who preserve the civilized community.

We feel that our Albert Seitz represented a human quality which should be valued by everyone. That is why we feel uninhibited about writing a tribute to him.

And it seems significant to us that Albert was going about his duty, preparing our mailing list, up to the moment of his death.

When the end came, there was a shock for all of us and a short period of reflection. Would it seem a hard, cold response when the noises of machinery resumed, when the presses rolled again? No. If one understood, it was a tribute. And we think there was no one on our staff who did not understand it that way; to continue to carry out his duty was a tribute to Albert Seitz, pressman; the work must be done.

We feel fortunate to be in a position to tell of one of the typical "little men" who make so valuable a contribution to our society. We pay tribute to Albert Seitz, pressman.

THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-THIRD DAY OF APRIL, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-THREE

NEW CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

It has been done. A chamber of commerce has been formed in Newmarket. Though there are and will be persons who will shrug their shoulders and say "Oh, it will die out like the others did," there are sufficient numbers of energetic people in the new organization to carry out a worthy civic program and make it a successful organization. Boards of trade have been started in Newmarket in past years and they have been short-lived organizations. The prophets of doom have already given their warnings but the enthusiastic group is ignoring their prophecies.

The Newmarket chamber is an organization of civic-minded persons who will strive throughout the year to make Newmarket and district a better place in which to make a home, raise a family or earn a living. Through the stimulation of trade and commerce, improvement of civic services, intelligent action and discussion on a wide range of community topics, the chamber hopes its work will bring better living to every man, woman and child within the community.

It would be well to say that businessmen and citizens should not expect spectacular results from the chamber this year. Much of its work will be devoted to investigation and discussion. It should be a clearing-house for ideas, a motivating factor behind community action, a critic of inefficiency and a moulder of public opinion and good citizenship.

We congratulate the members of the new chamber of commerce. We have more confidence in the community since we know that a group of civic-minded people have shown they have faith in Newmarket and will put their time or money toward making it a still better community.

RED SHIELD APPEAL

The Salvation Army is making its Red Shield appeal in Newmarket this year from May 4 to May 25. The dollars which are given to the Salvation Army are a sacred trust, to be used for the relief of suffering and reclamation of human lives.

The Salvation Army spends money where it will do the most good. In the Salvation Army's hostels, havens, homes and hospitals, its trained and devoted workers labor unceasingly to restore to men, women and children who have fallen by the wayside, the opportunity and desire for upright, self-reliant living.

Costs of administration are kept to a minimum. People who support the Salvation Army know full well that the money they give will be well spent. The complaint often heard when money is raised for humanitarian work, is that much of the money goes to pay for administration costs. It is not the case with the Salvation Army. Its workers lead dedicated lives of service. And to the broken and despairing, they offer, not bread alone, but the message of Divine Grace which transforms human lives.

Ask any veteran about the work of the Salvation Army during the war. He will tell you that the Army personnel helped any human being when he needed help and looked for no reward. Every soldier could depend on the "Sally Ann" for help.

Chairman for the campaign in Newmarket this year is Mr. Murray Roberts manager of the Dominion Bank branch. Contributions will be accepted by him.

The Salvation Army urges local citizens to give assistance in this campaign. Canvassers are needed for May 4, 5, 6 and 7. Anyone who is interested may canvass on these dates.

PRE-ELECTION TALK STARTS

(The Sun, Swift Current)

As the boom-boom of the impending federal election rattles faintly in the distance, the voters of Canada would be better advised to sit back, put on their slippers, fill their pipes, snuggle deep down in their chesterfield chairs and tell the politicians, "a plague on both your sides". Then when the shouting and hurrahing is over, walk to the polls and silently cast their ballots for whomsoever they think will better be able to administer efficiently the affairs of this country.

In reading through the voluminous verbosity that is Hansard one comes across continually sharp reminders that maybe a lot of our trouble comes in the wasted effort and loose talk that goes on in our houses of parliament which includes, of course, the legislatures. For instance, we just popped on this item, given to the House of Commons by Hazen Argue, CCF member for Assiniboia: "I say this Government reeks with scandal and the Cabinet is loaded with reckless men". While he said this, a little drama was being enacted in the legislative halls at Regina in which charges were being hurled at officers of the Saskatchewan government.

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Then another champion of the farmer gets up in the House of Commons and charges that Canadian farmers are being plagued by hordes of taxation teams who go around the country checking on farmers' incomes. They were putting farmers "through the wringer".

Too bad, so much of our politics is political. Of course nobody stands up and howls about taxation officers who are checking up on business men and individuals, something that is going on all the time. But it does sound good to champion the farmer.

The tax hounds, of course, get a little suspicious when a fellow drives a Cadillac while moaning about starving to death. We wish that every farmer and every businessman and every worker could afford a Cadillac. Newspapermen never will. But what we are trying to get at is that the politicians of no party in Canada have a monopoly on honesty or sincerity or patriotism and that a lot of them have the same idea in mind - perpetuation. Many of them were never as well off. We should remember that in assessing a lot of the stuff they sound off for home consumption.

WHY HOSPITALS SHOW DEFICITS

The Ontario Department of Health's annual report tells some interesting things about hospital activities in the year 1951, the Bowmanville Statesman points out.

According to the government department it costs general hospitals on an average $11.54 per day to provide patient care — this cost includes all services — accommodation, meals, use of operating room, laboratory, X-ray, medicine, out-patients, etc., but the patients themselves paid only $8.86 of this amount. Most of the difference was made up by government grants and public donations but there was still an overall deficit of $1,696,153.53. This is why the government should raise its rate to hospitals for indigent patients.

In 1951, 8,691 more babies were born in hospital than in 1950 for a total of 106,791 and only 1,901 or 1.8 percent were stillborn. Ten years previous 3.33 percent of babies born in hospital were stillborn. As over 80 percent of Ontario babies are now born in hospital, this reduction in infant mortality is of great importance.

A total of 667,238 patients were treated during the year or one in seven of the population, excluding those in Sanatoria. On an average 15,288 patients were in active treatment, hospitals daily using 83.8 percent of the capacity.

PARKING RUNAROUND

Some one of these days Canadian motorists are going to get mighty sore with the runaround most cities and towns are giving them on the parking problem, warns the Financial Post.

Taxes are piled so high on the front of the old bus now that the motorist can hardly see out the windshield. And since the war, meters have been installed to help solve the widespread parking problems. And the long-suffering driver forks over his pennies, nickels, and even dimes.

He says nothing. He thinks he's contributing to solving the parking problem.

Years roll by, and no improvement. He starts to count up the parking tags which keep hitting his windshield like bugs at night.

And then he realizes. Still nothing done.

Most cities are counting the revenues — forgetting that they should go to correct the cause of motors and tags, to provide off-street parking.

Small towns are among the worst offenders. They just charge rent for using public roads.

Few, all too few, municipalities follow Edmonton's fine example. Last year, the city collected $123,000 from meters, and put nearly $100,000 into trying to solve parking problems.

Nurses at La Scie, Nfld., have found they are the pioneers of their profession. They operate in a territory where there are no doctors or dentists, no roads and no transportation other than their own two feet. On one 10-hour visit to Horse Island, 15 miles from La Scie, where English-born Kathleen Quarmby is assigned as district nurse, she pulled 70 teeth, gave 70 inoculations and examined 300 patients. Her winter trips are made by snowshoe, many in snowstorms. In summer she travels by boat or on foot. "The responsibility is terrifying," says Kathleen, but the satisfaction of doing one's best is reward enough for Nurse Quarmby, seen above about to set off on another case with 'a bit of help' from Norm Toms, owner of La Scie's general store.

The Top Six Inches by "Dairy Farmer"

Recently we had the opportunity of spending most of a half a day in the office of one of the downtown trust company offices. We were trying unsuccessfully to make an offer on a piece of farm property on behalf of a friend of ours. We were met by gentlemen, very polite, very well pressed and very obliging. It was a real pleasure to talk to them, except that when it came to matters pertaining farming. Their ignorance was profound.

We left empty handed, not having been able to discover the proper legal form to make our offer. Now we didn't expect to see a man who could adjust a combine or fix the knocker of a baler. But we did expect to find a person who would realize the importance of the time of the season, the necessity of personal care of livestock and some knowledge of co-operatives, in general some legal background in the problems of farming.

Neither is this an isolated case. Time and time again, meetings and associations pass resolutions and attempt to undertake steps which would appear to us, simple, only to find that they are impossible. And when we seek legal advice, we are told that some of the things we are doing already are really illegal. We would go as far as to say that the greatest obstacle in the path of farm legislation, marketing, pooling and zoning today is the legal bottleneck and the absence of knowledge on the part of the legal profession and the absence of lawyers who have the necessary qualifications to deal with these problems.

Of course the reason for it is easy to see. In the past this field has been non-existent; if it was there it was not profitable. You might say that the instances we mention are not common and that we are putting them out of proportion to their daily importance to farmers. We don't think so. We doubt, for example, that the ordinary sales catalogue is legally proper.

That is the solution. First of all, if the different governments can maintain livestock services for research and advice, economics divisions to investigate trends and gather information and in general, hire people to find out and help, then they should also maintain a farm legal department. This department should make a thorough study of problems, work out proper contract forms and in general be available for consultation when called upon by organizations and individuals.

Secondly, some central farm organizations such as the Federation of Agriculture, should have a legal officer to help investigate complaints, help with the briefs presented, with proposed legislation and resolutions.

We are convinced that if such services would be available, farmers would save money, time and a lot of disappointments. Our position would be stronger, our demands better understood and solutions for our problems would be faster forthcoming.

Of course objections will be raised and we will be told that the upkeep of such an office would cost too much. Well, our central organizations are badly under-financed. They should be better supported anyway. Let us not forget also, that in this day and age when the choice for youth on the farm is between farming and going to the city, a lot of good brains could be found who would have the necessary background and connection to farming. They should be shown that there is a need for them as professional men in this complicated field of farm business.

The roar of a 13-gun salute greeted Rear Admiral J. C. Hibbard, DSC, CD, RCN, when he arrived at H.M.C. dockyard at Esquimalt, B.C., to take up his new duties as flag officer, Pacific Coast. He relieved Commodore K. F. Adams, CD, RCN, who has held the appointment of senior officer in chief command since the departure in mid-January of Rear Admiral W. B. Greery, CBE, CD, RCN, the former flag officer. Above, Rear Admiral Hibbard inspects the guard of honor mounted in the dockyard for the occasion. On his left is the officer of the guard, Lieut. Peter M. Birch-Jones, RCN, of Vancouver.

This command portrait, the first taken in the uniform representing one of the new ranks bestowed upon him by his wife, Queen Elizabeth, shows the Duke of Edinburgh as admiral of the fleet. Prince Philip made his first appearance in this uniform at the reception welcoming Marshal Tito to England.

Last week we wrote a little about the subject of Grace, the Grace of God. Whilst visiting with a friend who was, and still is, unaware of this writer's identity, he said words to this effect,
"This subject of Grace has always been a riddle to me but after reading the last column I'm beginning to see light." The Pulpit feels encouraged somewhat by such remarks.
Some folks write in and tell us what they think; very often we go on and on without hearing a word. We often wonder what folks are thinking about our little column.

Well, here we go again and still on the subject of Grace.
The source of Grace is none
other than our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, for we read "Grace and Truth came by Jesus Christ." He was in the world, but the world knew Him not,
but to as many as received Him to them gave He the power to become the sons of God, even to them who should believe on His name. Through Christ, man received the Grace of God by simply believing. But that is not all, for life springs out of death when Jesus Christ is received, even as we read, "As sin hath reigned unto death even so might Grace reign unto eternal life through Jesus Christ."

Now, no doubt, many are going to say that they can well believe that a sinner needs to be saved by the Grace of God because after all there is no other way for Him to get help except by the undeserved love of God, but after he becomes a Christian it must be different. In order to keep being a Christian one must do certain things that are right and should pray lots and read his Bible and so on and on.

Dear friend, hear the Word of God, "For the Grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared unto all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world..." Not only is Jesus Christ the source of all Grace by which we are saved but He, who is the Source, abides within the trusting soul and supplies the very Grace that sustains man in his walk of holiness. Grace teaches us concerning holy things.

Grace is God's provision to bring into being, sustain and perfect His new creation in Christ Jesus. It is the operation of His infinite, unrestrained love on behalf of such as are worthy of everlasting punishment. It is not only God's means of forgiving sin, but includes all that He does with and for the believer in raising him from his lost estate; in purifying and perfecting him; and finally, placing him a glorious being, far above all other created beings, in perfect union with Himself.

No wonder we constantly sing
"Oh to Grace how great a debtor, daily I'm constrained to be."
Well I guess the Pulpit has preached enough doctrine for another week. We don't want you to get weary of reading our column but we do want you to know that there is provision in Christ for every man, woman and child to live a life of great joy and usefulness and to die
a death of great victory.

Arrival Of Spring Focuses Attention On Hort. Society

With the arrival of spring weather and the approach of the gardening season, attention is focused once again on the Newmarket Horticultural society and its many activities. Membership tickets are now available.
They may be obtained from the membership chairman, Charles Jamieson, or from any member of the society's executive.

There are many advantages to membership in a horticultural society beyond the fact that each person, by joining, assists the organization in its work with the children of the town. A varied program is carried on in the juvenile department through the provision of bulbs and copies of the National Geographic magazine to the town's schools; the conducting of art and essay contests on horticultural themes and the inclusion of special classes for school children in the society's flower shows. This year's juvenile chairman is Miss Eva Barnes.

Says Scouting Can Do More Good Than Organized Sport

Robert Martin, chairman of the Boy Scout Men's Group committee, Newmarket, addressed the April meeting of the Scout-Guide Mothers' auxiliary.
An interesting program was presented by the Scout pack under the direction of the leader, Horace Jacques.

Mrs. Victor McCutcheon presided and introduced the visitors to the mothers. The scouts presented a regular scout meeting with an inspection, a new observation game which Mr. Martin taught them and a demonstration of such topics as the applying of a tourniquet, first aid in the woods and traffic laws.
Conducting the demonstrations were Scouts Jim Nuttal, Bob Edwards, Carl McCutcheon, David Jefferson and Duncan Johnson.

In his talk on scouting, Mr.
Martin who has been connected with the world-wide youth movement since its organization, said that scouting encourages individual initiative, prepares a boy for emergencies and channels his energies, even more than organized sports could for it offers a wider program.

Mr. Martin felt strongly about the lack of interest and support shown in scouting by service clubs and the community. He spoke of the efforts put into the support of organized sports and said that such sports encourage only a few while scouting was for all. In organized, competitive sports only the best have a chance to make the team. The backward, or physically handicapped youngster has no place in such a picture, he said. In any well-organized scout pack, the poorest material is accepted. It is spread out through the various patrols so that each youngster receives individual attention and encouragement.

APPRAISAL OF ALL BUILDINGS IS CONSIDERED

A letter was received by Newmarket council last week from a firm of appraisers requesting the opportunity to appraise the local municipal buildings. In his letter, Henry Scott, a professional engineer, quoted the figures as $280 for the complete appraisal of the town hall and $780 as the amount which would cover an appraisal of the town hall and the 24 other municipally owned buildings in Newmarket.

The letter suggested that at the same time, an appraisal of the local county buildings, such as the registry office, might be covered to determine their condition regarding fire hazard.

"Our fire insurance underwriters will give us an appraisal on all the buildings they insure," said Robert McGuire. "They will cube the building and set its value." Joseph Dales asked if it was worth $800 for the town to know what it owned.

The appraisal was suggested so that in the event of fire, an accurate estimate of the losses involved would be available.

The mayor, in answer to Mr.
McGuire's suggestion that the insurance underwriters do the work, said that it was on the suggestion of the insurance firm that an appraisal be conducted.

"There is more to the job than simply cubing the buildings," said Mr. Vale. "Could we not have our assessor attend to this work?"
The matter was left to be discussed with the assessor.

Motorcycle Crashes Through Store Window At Holland Landing

The store windows, part of the wall and inside shelving were smashed in "Pop" Walker's store, Holland Landing on April 12, when a freak motorcycle accident occurred in the village.
"Pop" estimated the damages to be close to $600. The loss includes damaged stock.

Ralph Cronin, 18, Toronto, was coming through Holland Landing with three other friends also on motorcycles when the accident occurred. As he went to pass his chum, Edward Wood, Toronto, the drive chain jumped the sprocket, locking the back wheel and causing Ralph to lose control of his machine. He collided with his chum and then crashed into the side of Walker's store.

Admitted to York County hospital where Dr. W. C. Arkinstall attended him, Ralph Cronin suffered concussion and other injuries. Investigating were Chief Constable J. E. Jardine, East Gwillimbury police, and Constable F. W. Obee.

BIBLE RESEARCH

Something new came into being last Friday night when at Grace church, approximately 50 people met to "search for Truth" as found in the Bible. Everybody was invited. Several different denominations were represented.

The leader for the night was Rev. Hugh Stewart, Toronto, and his subject was "What does the Bible teach as to the Eternal Security of the Christian?" Opportunity was given for any to ask questions. This is to be a weekly feature on Friday nights.
Light refreshments were served by the ladies of the church.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of Grace church was held on Tuesday evening. All departments presented their reports for the year past and a most encouraging over-all picture was presented.
Thirty new members were received into fellowship during the year. The Crusaders, meeting in the town hall most of year numbered approximately 300.
The Sunday school, since moving into the new church has shown an increase of 40 percent.
The regular Sunday services have an increase of nearly 100 percent and the congregation is looking forward to the new church year with much encouragement.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

FAREWELL AND RETURN

Goodbye, farewell, au revoir, auf wiedersehen, in whatever language are never pleasant words, but sometimes they have to be said and last Wednesday evening in Bogartown school house, they were said to a young couple whom we are very sorry to lose from our community.

I refer to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harper who, with their three boys, are moving to London from where Roy will take up his duties as a member of the provincial police force. To us, Roy is more than just a friendly member of the community. We knew him as a music pupil and member of the Ingleside orchestra and chorus sharing all the trials and fun of that time.

Now he is the head of a family and leaving this neighborhood to take up a new life among strangers. Doris has been, for the last few years, our most efficient W.I. president and her place will be hard to fill.

About 100 people gathered in the school house to wish them "God speed" and express their esteem in various pleasant ways. Community singing opened the short program presided over by Mr. McMillan. Mrs. Gordon McClure read a delightful little tale of the past. Violin and piano selections were given by Max and Elmer Johnson, accompanied by Viola Johnson at the piano and by Harry West with Gladys Ridley as accompanist. Nancy and Helen Ridley also pleased the audience with two songs.

Then came the highlights of the evening. First, representing the Women's Institute, your columnist presented Doris with the traditional cup and saucer and a few words of appreciation for her work among us. Then the community took over. Jean Williams read an address which bespoke our sorrow at losing this family from our midst and then asked them to accept the gifts brought forward by Max Johnson, W. Walker, and G. McCullough. These were a beautiful trill lamp, a large mirror and an electric iron, also gifts for the boys.

The recipients thanked the donors and with "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" and "God Save the Queen" the event of the evening was over and the more common place functions of partaking of refreshments brought the evening to a close. We wish Roy and Doris every success in their new home and work.

Return
On Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the Newmarket Lions club for the fifth consecutive year staged their minstrel show. Unlike other years, when as members of the orchestra, we were there every night, but never saw the show, this year we were there one night and did see it.

The background, costumes and lighting were very fine, more colorful than ever. Mrs. Blodale at the piano and Miss Goldsmith at the Hammond organ gave good support, although I missed the uplift the strings and brass seem to give this type of entertainment.

Bill Greig piloted the chorus skillfully and Gene McCaffrey, Alan Read, Jack Luesby and Dick Hilliard as end men, while Alex Eves as interlocutor and Ang West as interrupter, especially when he staged a one-man show gave a good account of themselves. Art Evans in the soft shoe dance and the Hula dancers deserved more applause than they received the night we were there, also the quartet, Gene McCaffrey - soloist and Jack Luesby, a real comedian, for no one can deny that Jack is that.

The banjo solo by A. Georgas belonged to a minstrel show, for a banjo is a darkey's instrument and I think that what those who give a minstrel show should realize, is that it must in its music, its fun and all its aspects, portray the childlike gaiety that rose above the sadness of slavery and the pathos underneath if they are to be true to the real minstrel show tradition.

And so for another year the lights are out and the show is over.

NEWMARKET VETERANS

Friday, April 24, is the date of our next general meeting. Invite your wife to take part in our social activities. An enjoyable evening can be had by all. A change of program each month is anticipated.

Our bingo chairman, Jack Wright, has something up his sleeve for our next bingo. He declines to confide in anyone. You should attend; it may be worth the effort.

Our comrades who have been in the hospital are home again except one. A good idea for any member is to visit the hospital, take a pack of fags, or if you feel like it, drop a get-well card to those who are shut in either at home or in hospital.

In the near future, readers of this column will be kept acquainted with the meaning of our Forget-Me-Not Fund. Let's get behind this project. Money collected from the sale of Forget-Me-Not is used to assist veterans and their dependents and should be kept on the same level as other funds which are advertised.

As to membership, we have no worry. We feel a veteran is a veteran if honorably discharged. Any argument contrary is out of the question; all are eligible.

Our welfare committee, consisting of Chairman Ted Mitchell, William LaParade and Alf Elphinstone would appreciate it if anyone knowing of any member sick or in need would call any of the three.

Hon. Hugues Lapoint, Minister of Veterans' Affairs, has introduced a bill granting assistance for higher education for children of deceased veterans and other persons. A question by one of the members of parliament was in connection with War Veterans' Allowance. The reply was that the government was wholeheartedly behind recommendations made by the different veterans' organizations.

How many ways do they serve you?

Guess again?

All of these people serve you in useful ways through their jobs. But, like people in all walks of life, they may also be helping you in certain important unseen ways.

Take your postman, for instance. He may have helped to build your home through his ownership of life insurance. It's possible — because the money of thousands of life insurance policyholders is invested for them in building homes throughout the nation.

In the same way your milk man, lawyer or nurse may have helped build new highways, waterworks, schools, power plants or other essential public works in your community. And — who knows — perhaps your job too was created by the life insurance policyholders' dollars, invested to develop new businesses and industries. So anyone who owns life insurance — including probably you — does more than provide financial security for his family. He also serves his fellow citizens in all these useful ways.

No matter the size or type of truck you need—what better proof could there be that a Chevrolet truck is your best buy!

According to registrations (obtained from sources subscribed to by the industry and considered to be reliable) truck users in every single province bought more Chevrolets again in 1952, than any other make.

And so year after year Chevrolet's popularity proves beyond any question of doubt that Chevrolet and only Chevrolet provides the sturdy durability, trouble free performance and long low-upkeep life that means real satisfaction to truck users.

Yes, it is difficult to imagine more convincing proof of Chevrolet's superiority, for such clear-cut and overwhelming preference can lead to but one conclusion:

Chevrolet trucks must be better, must enjoy solid advantages over other trucks. Such preference must rest on a firm foundation of good, sound value. And, of course, it does — as owners of Chevrolet trucks can testify.

Chevrolet trucks are widely known for their ability to hold hauling costs down. They are known for their power, their sturdiness, for their exceptional gas and oil economy, as well as their low-cost upkeep. And on these same counts, you can expect 1953 Chevrolet trucks to be even more outstanding.

So before you buy any truck, see how much more Chevrolet trucks offer you. Stop in and see us soon

The Editor: In the phraseology of a well-known cartoonist, "a tip of the hat" from this reader to the clear-thinking folk in Newmarket East farm forum, for the following clean-cut picture, as recorded in your "Farm Forum News" just three months back:

"The forum definitely thinks our present day markets and prices are not sufficient to encourage farmers to produce to capacity. Prices are too uncertain; too many farm products are handled by non-agriculturalists; and, by the time government and other brokerages get their spread from farm produce, the price has risen greatly. The flowers we place upon her grave
May wither and decay.
But the love of her who sleeps beneath.
Shall never fade away.
Ever remembered by her husband James Pemberton.

PEMBERTON—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Bertha Pemberton, who passed away April 23, 1950. Peaceful be thy rest, dear mother.

Those concerned include friends and relatives, both near by and distant; former pupils from Cherry Creek, Sharon, and Bogartown schools, either in person or by correspondence; as well as our own pastor and congregation of Grace church, who also made available the use of their new and beautiful church parlor.
To all it meant sacrifice, and to some, as always, it meant untiring and tireless effort. To all and to each we would conclude with deep-thank you.

IT'S A Woman's World

BY CAROLINE ION

"How interested are you in your children?" That's a question being asked this week by the religious education convener of the Newmarket Home and School association, Mrs. Fred Breckon. "Are you as concerned about the fourth 'R'—Religion, as you are about the first three, readin', ritin' and 'rithmetick'?"

Local parents and teachers will be able to show their interest in Newmarket children through their attendance at the Home and School meeting on Tuesday night. (Details regarding the program are found elsewhere in the news columns of the Era.) At this meeting, under the direction of Mrs. Breckon, there will be a comprehensive report on the religious instruction being carried on in the public elementary schools.

Six ministers, members of the Newmarket Ministerial association who have been doing this work will tell in answer to five questions, the grades they have taught and the topic discussed; the way it was received; ways in which the Home and School and parents, generally could co-operate and any personal comments they may wish to add. There will be an open discussion period following the presentations of this panel when questions from the audience will be welcomed.

In addition to a musical interlude in the program, there will be a film, "Living Is A Family Responsibility". Parents are concerned with the physical development of their children. They take great care in seeing that their youngsters have their vitamin D and some citrus fruits daily. Inoculations against diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and various other diseases, which only a short time ago took the lives of many children, have become an accepted procedure. This interest of parents in the physical well-being of their family is correct and justified. But, many of the older generation wonder if somewhere along the way, the traditional concern with the spiritual development of children hasn't been lost.

It is a question of emphasis. What do we want for our children? What do we expect of them? Most fathers and mothers would answer that they want happiness and a full, useful life for their boys and girls when they reach maturity. They want them to become adult mentally as well as physically and be able to give leadership in the years ahead.

Is health the most important requirement for these fulfillments? No one, least of all this writer who has had her share of poor health, would minimize the importance of robust well-being. But, all of us know people who have overcome physical handicaps to become happy, useful and contented adults.

Far more necessary is a sense of faith, a philosophy of life to which the individual can cling in times of trouble and indecision. How are our children to find this? We do not trust to luck that they will pick up a sufficient knowledge of the alphabet that they will learn to read by themselves. Is there as much interest shown in their religious instruction?

For many children, their homes will be their source of religious learning. Implemented by their Sunday school classes and church, this knowledge will form a strong foundation on which they can build their way of life. But all too frequently, there will be children who do not receive such instruction in their homes. They do not attend church or Sunday school. Unless religious education is provided in the schools where their attendance is compulsory, they do without it.

During their formative years children in their daily lives establish the pattern of behavior which they will follow in adulthood. What a wasted opportunity if they are not led into the proper path. What are we doing about religious instruction in our schools? On Tuesday night we shall have an opportunity to have our questions answered.

Church Players Present 'Trial of Jesus'

An outstanding religious play was seen at Kettleby last Sunday evening, when United church players of the pastoral charge of Kettleby, Snowball and Postageville, presented a sacred drama, "The Trial of Jesus." The play was written by a noted American minister and was first produced in Hollywood. The stage setting is that of a modern law court, with judge, counsel and jury. The witnesses, 17 in all, are scriptural characters of the days of Christ and his apostles, in colorful Eastern costumes.

The church hall was filled to overflowing and the performance was so impressive that there is a demand for its repetition. "The Trial" was prefaced by a brief devotional period in which the choir, under Marshall Greer, sang the beautiful anthem, "All In An April Evening." The program was greatly enhanced by two fine solos contributed by Miss Mabel Browne, Toronto, with Mrs. Ray Marshall at the piano.

The play was produced under the direction of Rev. R. and Mrs. Graham and is to be repeated on Sunday, May 3, at 8.15 p.m.

WHAT A DAY!

What a misery it can be on those days when you are feeling way below par. How slowly the hours drag by when you feel soedy and sluggish and seem to take all over.

And how unnecessary it all is, very often. Most times that dull, lousy feeling is the direct result of constipation and kidneys not working properly. You need something more than a simple laxative these times. You need Kruschen Salts. Millions the world over have learned the benefits of Kruschen... the salts that are like those in the waters of famous Mineral Springs. Acting in two ways at once, laxative and diuretic (for sluggish kidneys), Kruschen helps rid the body of waste matter. It goes right to the cause of that miserable, sloshy feeling that constipation brings about.

Get some Kruschen today. Less than half a teaspoonful can make you feel better all day long.

HI-SPORTS

Finishing touches on a monster gym display to be put on by the girl students at the Newmarket high school have now been completed. The program, under the able direction of Miss Kelly, will be presented in the high school gym on May 11 and 12.

Every girl in the school, some 225 to 250 in number, will take an active part in the full program, which will include gym work, tumbling and folk dancing, in fact a cross section of the year's athletic program at the N.H.S.

Miss Kelly has been working particularly hard on getting the program into shape and promises one of the biggest and most impressive displays ever staged at the school on the hill. Further details regarding tickets for the big evening will be forthcoming next week.

Fred Speer reports the boys are just winding up their inter-form basketball schedule and a champion will be declared this week. We'll bring you the final results next week.

Work has also begun on the spring track and field program and Mr. Speer is hoping to line up an inter-school meet with Pickering in May. N.H.S. students are also preparing for the Eckhart trophy meet which is expected to be staged this spring.

At Pickering College plans for a busy spring sport program are taking shape. Program will include inter-mural softball, lacrosse, tennis, track and field and archery.

School athletic director C. R. "Blackie" Blackstock and assistant director Lou Lanier are working on an inter-school meet with Newmarket high school and St. Andrew's College.

Meanwhile, the students are readying for the big event of the spring, the annual inter-mural track and field meet scheduled for May 23. For this four class meet the school is divided into three teams, red, blue and silver.

The annual athletic dinner has been scheduled for June 6.

The Public School Hockey League enjoyed a banner season. Over 150 players registered for action in the six team squirt and four team pee-wee league. That figure set a new participation record. Champions in the four team pee-wee league were the Spitfires. Spitfires are seen here holding the J. L. Spillette Memorial Trophy emblematic of league supremacy. The Public School teachers and several hockey minded citizens handled the coaching duties of the various teams. Back row, left to right, Terry Budd, Bill LeDrew, Jim McArthur, Bob Carson, Ian Dick, Walt Perrin, Brian Orton, Gary Edwards, Jack Gunn (coach); front row, Peter Vale, Don Harkness, Len Abbott, John Hopper, Jim Brown, Ken Downs, Gary Hogan, Bill Sheridan, Tom Wadsworth.

Cleveland scene: Last weekend I was in Cleveland, Ohio, and had a brief opportunity of looking over the sporting scene. The boast that the Ohio city makes about being the sporting capital of the U.S.A. seems to be well founded.

On Saturday, field lacrosse, basketball, softball, golf, swimming, hockey, football practices, baseball and soccer were all on the menu. That field lacrosse item seems strange to see but apparently it is developing into quite a sport with Ohio State Western Reserve, Cleveland All-Stars and several others having expert teams.

There is a junior hockey circuit as well as professional hockey and of course on Sunday night, a full arena was readied for the Pittsburgh Hornets vs Cleveland Barons, American final. The fans are quite rabid, and it's easy to visualize an N.H.L. franchise doing well there. Carded for the week was the American league opener between the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox, and no less than 53,000 fans listed to attend.

The sports writers pick the Yankees to finish first with Cleveland second and the majority of the critics go in that order as well, but they're keeping their fingers crossed and hope that Casey Stengel won't set a professional baseball record of five straight pennants. Bill Glynn, onetime Toronto first baseman, looks as if he'll be carried by the club for most of the year and he's been doing some real long distance clouting. Every player is as well known to the kids on the street or the entire city as if the place was a small town.

What a stadium Hank Greenberg and Bob Hope have! The empty stadium was spic and span, fresh with paint and pea green grass. The same night Kid Gavilan and his stable partner Chico Vejar were scheduled to meet capable opponents and a packed arena was guaranteed. The Cleveland promoter has solved the television threat by putting on three or four thousand seats at $1 per head, so that a packed house is on hand most nights.

I saw Gavilan and Vejar in action briefly at the Old Angle's Gym. Gavilan is in great shape and one part of his workout was to dance up close to the fans and do shadow boxing while he talked to them. His punches came within a fraction of everybody but conveniently missed. It takes real timing and I may say some nerve to stand still as a target too. Gavilan expects to invade the middleweight section. Bobo Olsen, he says, would be right down his alley but Randy Turpin might provide trouble. Vejar might well be his natural successor for the welterweight crown.

Wrestling is another favorite with the fans and I noted another championship called the American Wrestling association. The "title" has changed hands three times in three weeks with Buddy "Nature Boy" Rogers and Argentina "Logo" Rocca being the candidates for Rogers' title this week in Cleveland.

The water front drive, in from the airport, presents a large number of softball and baseball stadiums and yachting and boating facilities of every kind. The small craft harbor is a sight to behold.

Arturo Rubenstein and the Cleveland Symphony competed with the Bach Choir, the Ames Brothers, Ray Anthony and his orchestra, Flash O'Farrell, Moulin Rouge, Call Me Madam, Sunday at the Zoo, Ex-President Herbert Hoover, guest speaker at the Case Alumni Dinner, Governor Lausche and the Cleveland Bar dinner, in a mad scramble that saw all places of amusement

Strikes And Spares

With but two weeks to go, Queens lead the Office Specialty Office Gals' League with 45 points. Dubs are runners-up with 37 and Pin-Ups are trailers with 18 points. Five shot makers broke into the 500 circle last week. Fran McLeod was the pace setter with 543 followed by Audrey Bunn 525, Dorothy Dow 523, Noreen Greenwood 511 and Elda Hall 502.

Hoffman League rollers will need a playoff to settle the championship. Sheet Metal climaxed a big comeback try with a 7-0 win over Machine Shop while Press Shop upset Vorelone 5-2. That left the Sheet Metal and Vorelone tied for the title with 98 points each followed by Press 85 and Machine Shop 59. Vorelone and Sheet Metal will bowl this week for the title, reports secretary Grant Blight. Three pin spillers made the 600 bracket last week. Alan Daniels was top hand with 617, followed by Harold Coates 604 and Harold Andrews 600.

With one week to go, interest is running at fever pitch in the fight to cop the title in the Office Specialty Office Gals' League. MacFarland's team has the inside track at the moment with 46 points followed by Bovair's 42 and Burch's and Bennett's with 41 each. Ivan Day topped the pins for a fine 699 (254, 237, 208) triple. Jack Malcolm counted games of 286, 217 and 147 for 650. Don Burch racked up a 639 and Gord VandenBergh 618.

Myrtle Dunn rolled a 656 triple to head the scoring list in the Thursday Night Ladies League. Other good scores were turned in by Betty VanZant 588, Marie McCabe 548, Agnes Richardson 534, Audrey Halse 527, Olive Hughson 513.

With three weeks to go, it looks like a fight to the bitter end for the Monday Night Ladies' League championship. Here and culture doing a sound box office business.

On Sunday the churches of all denominations were having crowded congregations and enthusiastic singing. By now you'll gather that Cleveland is a city of activity, industry, good payrolls, and folks who like to spend the money. You're so right! The city is clean, we didn't see a single drunk, or obnoxious scene, and everybody seemed most obliging. In our books you can write down Cleveland as a top sporting city and a worthwhile place to visit.

King And Vaughan Playdowns Bog Down

Folks out around Schomberg, King City, Nobleton, Bolton and Kleinburg will have to forego the usual pleasure of seeing a King-Vaughan hockey league champion crowned this year.

"It is getting late in the season; Bolton Wanderers are still tied up in the O.R.H.A. playdowns and the semi-final round-robin series between King City, Schomberg and Kleinburg has bogged down completely so we won't be able to run off the title series," states league secretary Bill Breedon.

Original playoff plan was to have the round-robin series victor take on Bolton, who finished well in front in the league race for the league title but Bolton's successful run in the O.R.H.A. has completely disrupted league playoff plans in this direction.

BOWLING BANQUET

The Wednesday Afternoon Ladies' bowling group concluded activities for the season with a banquet on Wednesday evening, April 15. Held at the King George hotel, the program included cards and the presentation of awards for the season. There were draws for lucky prizes.

Top team captained by Vi Dales included Myrtle Dunn, Isobel Sturgess, Kay Morrison and Edna Ballard. The second team had Margaret Atkinson as captain and other members were Louise Smith, Caroline Ion, Lil Daly and Doris Higginson.

Prize for high three games flat went to Vi Dales. High average was won by Myrtle Dunn and high single with handicap was awarded to Helen Taylor. Agnes Richardson won the high single flat. A special prize was presented to Lil Daly who was the only member of the club with perfect attendance.

LAKE SIMCOE SOFTBALL

Framework for what is hoped to be "biggest and best" year in the Lake Simcoe softball league's long history will be launched Friday, Apr. 24, when the Simcoe leaguers get down to electing officers and discussing plans for the 1953 season. Meeting will be called to order at 8:30 p.m. and will be held in the East Gwillimbury Memorial hall, Sharon.

"Every team wishing to enter this year's race for the Stan Cook trophy is asked to send two delegates to the organization meeting," reports league president Ken Hodgins. Last year league boasted eight teams, Vancor, Pine Orchard, Queensville, Keswick, Willow Beach, Belhaven, Mount Albert and Zephyr.

That checkmate left the league title hanging in mid air. Ray Smith, league president has summoned his executive and team delegates to meet tonight, Thursday, April 23, in an attempt to clear up any misunderstandings, award the trophy and to wind up the league business for this season.

The meeting is called for 8 p.m. and will be held at the president's residence 51 Park Ave.

THE Calvert SPORTS COLUMN

by Elmer Ferguson

It came into being only three years ago, as winter's answer to Little League baseball, but today, Biddy Basketball has grown with giant strides as another development calculated to interest the kids of our nation in clean competitive sport, and thereby combat the treads of juvenile delinquency.

Canada hasn't quite kept step with the United States, even comparatively, in the growth of Biddy Basketball. Nor, in fact, has the game grown in Canada to the same extent as Little League baseball. But it is making rapid headway. For there are about twenty-seven Canadian cities with Biddy Basketball fairly well organized. There are probably twelve to fifteen hundred participants whose ages according to regulations range from thirteen years down to nine. Most of these cities are in Quebec, Ontario and the Western Provinces.

Most of the Canadian Biddy Basketball Clubs are organized and sponsored by Social Centres, Boys' Associations and the odd Community project. The schools have not as yet taken it up in any official way. The physical welfare of the boy is taken into consideration and a careful check is made so that they do not strain themselves, either physically or emotionally.

In the United States, the growth of the game has been almost fantastic. From the original 16 teams in one state it has spread, until now it has more than 10,000 small fry playing on 1200 teams in 44 states. And it is being played in 11 foreign countries.

The program is regulation basketball in miniature, designed specifically for the younger set. The rules are tailored to their measurements and immature strength, such as lowering the hoops a foot and a half, shortening the foul line three feet, and using a smaller ball.

The appeal of this youth movement is almost irresistible. And it has received great impetus from Jay Archer, former State Teachers College star, who tours the country spreading the gospel of sport. Canada has gone along without such inspirational help, carried on the wave of Little League basketball success, but as in baseball, Canadian teams will soon be ready to compete in the national tournaments held annually across the line, just as did our champion Little Leaguers compete with distinction in the Little League baseball play-offs last autumn.

These juvenile leagues are great things for the youngsters. They cut across race, creed, and other beliefs and social distinctions in a fashion that is more truly democratic than prevails in anything outside sport. They start our kids off on truly democratic lines, something that only sport, the great leveller, can accomplish.

Your comments and suggestions for this column will be welcomed by Elmer Ferguson, c/o Calvert House, 451 Yonge St., Toronto.

Honor Gorman Smoke Rings At Banquet Tomorrow Night

Plans are going ahead full blast for the "Gorman Smoke Rings Honor Night" which has been scheduled for the Canadian Legion hall on Friday, April 24. Some 100 Hub and district sportsmen are expected to attend.

The program committee, under the chairmanship of George Byers, have drawn a promise from Sid Smith, Toronto Maple Leaf wingman, and Hap Emms, Barrie Flyers coach, to be on hand to pass along some excellent advice to our small fry hockey champions.

Other honored guests will be Mayor Joseph Vale and Jack Christie, O.M.H.A. secretary. The full evening program will get underway at 8.30 p.m. when the Gorman Smoke Rings, O. M. H. A. bantam B titlists, will be guests of the town of Newmarket at a banquet. Following the banquet a long and imposing list of gifts will be presented to the Smoke Rings.

If you are interested in attending the banquet and presentation ceremonies there are a few tickets still available and these can be obtained from team sponsor Peter Gorman, coach Frank Hollingsworth or from George Byers.

Smoke Rings have been honored on several occasions lately. Recently they attended the Barrie-St. Mike's hockey game in Barrie as guests of busman Larry Needler and taximan Early Ruthven. Last week they were guests of Roxy Theatre for a theatre night and in the offing is a trip to the Toronto Maple Leafs opening ball game, courtesy of the Dow Brewery Limited.

Softball Leaguers Fail Try Again April 28

Prospects for a 1953 Newmarket town softball league appear rather gloomy at the moment. The league's annual meeting was held Monday in the town hall basement. There were seven interested players and fans in attendance and the league boosters didn't get to first base in their attempts to organize.

Office Specialty, last year's champs, and Can. Hoffman finalists last season, were not represented. Ray Smith, Sports-Cycle mentor, reported his team would not re-enter and Charles McDonald, Thompson-Bell observer, indicated, although the Bellmen hadn't organized as yet, they would likely have a team ready for action.

League secretary-treasurer Bert Kent reported the league was in healthy financial shape with a balance of $56 on hand. One last attempt will be made to get the league rolling. A second organization meeting will be held next Tuesday, April 28, at 7.30 p.m. in the town hall basement. Better be on hand, men, if you want a town softball league this summer. This is positively the last and final call.

KESWICK NAME OFFICIALS

Plans for an all-out effort to bring Keswick a Lake Simcoe softball league title were given the once over at an organization meeting held last week. Major item on the agenda was the naming of officials to guide the team in the 1953 campaigning. The delegates named Art King as president and secretary-treasurer. Ken "King of the Swat" Hodgins was chosen as manager. The important post of coach was left open for further consideration and several Keswick district sportsmen will be approached to take on the coaching duties.

It is learned at the meeting most of last year's players will be on hand for duty again this year and Keswick expects to put another strong contender in the field for Simcoe honors.

of the O.M.H.A. bantam D championship, were honored guests of their sponsors, Schomberg Lions club, to officially close the hockey books. Some 200 players, guests and those associated with the team were present.

Master of ceremonies Bill Breedon bade the guests welcome and congratulated the team, coach Doug Marchant and manager Bill Hollingshead on their successful O.M.H.A. championship bid.

Guests present included Mike Wiechel, O.M.H.A. president, Jim Thompson, Toronto Maple Leafs defenseman, and Art Marshall, former Marlboro senior player.

After being introduced by Cliff Graham, Jim Thompson and Art Marshall presented each player with a miniature hockey stick autographed by each player on the Toronto Maple Leaf hockey team. Each player on the Lions team also received a windbreaker with a suitable crest. Presentation of the windbreakers was made by Coach Marchant and Manager Hollingshead.

Coach Marchant and manager Bill Hollingshead were in turn presented with a pocket clock. Presentation was made by Geo. Johns on behalf of the players and the players' parents to show their appreciation of the fine work done by Doug Marchant and Bill Hollingshead. The full evening of activity closed with a dance.

N. Y. MINOR BASEBALL

The organization meeting of the North York minor baseball leagues will be held in the Newmarket town hall (basement) on Friday, May 1. Meeting is called for 8 p.m. All teams entered last year, Richmond Hill, Aurora, Oak Ridges, Newmarket, Mount Albert and Sutton, are asked to have delegates present at the organization meeting.

Last season the North York minor leagues enjoyed a banner season with teams entered from Aurora, Richmond Hill, Oak Ridges, Newmarket, Mount Albert and Sutton in the bantam, midjet and juvenile series. Invitations will also be extended to Bradford, Keswick, Stouffville, Markham, Uxbridge and Bolton to enter teams this season.

HASHMAN AWARD

Bill Mundell

Sometimes your Hashman wonders just what the good burghers of Aurora would do without Bill Mundell around to keep the minor sports program rolling in high gear. Bill, I would say, is just about the busiest chap in the county keeping minor hockey and baseball teams in action. Bill, of course, gets help on the program from Bill Patrick, Harry Sutton, Bud Cato and several other Aurora minor sports enthusiasts but he's the organizing genius and he's the man that sees that every lad in Aurora, who wants to play, gets a chance to get out there and show his stuff.

Recently Aurora Rotary bantams came down in front of Woodbridge to win the North York Bantam Hockey League title and the Lex MacKenzie Trophy and that was quite a feather in the cap of Mundell and company. Ahead, of course, is the baseball season and no doubt before you can say "Jack Robinson" Bill will be swinging into it - if he hasn't already done so - organizing the Aurora minor baseball program for 1953. So this week it's no trouble at all to name Bill Mundell as our Hashman award winner and Roxy Theatre pass recipient.

HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT

Newmarket Sports Editor

Side glances on a sunny spring afternoon. Did somebody say it was a calm week for the sporting clans? Don't you believe it, things are going full blast in the organization league.

Before you know it the boys and girls will be swinging for the fences, clipping around the base paths and cantering over the meadow hauling down the long loops. In fact Ted Robinson throws out the inter-mediate baseballers start their spring push-ups next Monday. Better be out, men, if you want to make a name for yourself in the big diamond sport.

Peaches VanZant and your paragrapher tripped over to the fair grounds Saturday to get the lay of the land for a new hardball diamond. It's something, of course, that is a must. One diamond over there won't accommodate all the mushball flocks, intermediate and minor hardballers.

Figure to line the new diamond up in front of the grandstand and that should bring back some fond memories to ye old timers like Bernard McHale, Bill Epworth, Dick Hugo, Lou Bovair, Arn Molyneaux, Shorty Turan, Stan Smith and a host of Hub baseball greats of yesterday who cavorted on that site in "the good old days" of town and tri-county leagues.

Looking over the fair grounds with an eye to the future, there's no doubt we could build it into a great sports center—one that we could be proud of. Plans in the discussion stage call for a new hardball diamond — we'll get that this year — a football field, a cinder track for track and field and ultimately a club house with wash rooms and showers.

It's right there under our noses if we can only get the job done. It's going to take money, time, effort and planning to accomplish the work. Right now a couple of thousand smackers would work wonders at the fair grounds. But where do we get them? That's the $64 question. Never fear—we'll get it done. Hub sportsmen aren't in the habit of letting any job lick them.

Softball Musings: It's a sad, sad state of affairs. There were just seven players, fans and delegates present Monday for the town league organization meeting. Even last year's proxy and his right hand man didn't show. Shame on you men. Like we've said before, town league activity is a necessity on our books because it gives a host of chappies, who might otherwise sit on the sidelines, an opportunity to get out an evening and burn up a little excess energy.

Town league moguls will try again Tuesday to get mobile. Let's see if we can do better in the attendance figures then.

Greetings and How Do Dos: Spits closed their hockey books officially Friday with a bout in the knife and fork circuit.

When you think of it, chaps like Geo. Byers, Leo Cull, Dewey Kuhns, Eddie Gibson, Father T. J. McCabe, Dick Rupke, Frank Bowser, Max Smith, Frank Johnston and Early Ruthven worked like "engor heavers" to provide the Hub with a winner. But our Edward and his Bush tribe threw a monkey wrench into the works. Ah well, what's to be has to be.

Headman Geo. Byers advises an opening meeting is in the offing early in May to organize for next season. So you fellows with bright ideas, better be on hand to put in your two cents' worth or forever hold your peace.

Friday is honor night for our Gorman Smoke Rings. It shapes up as a big evening. Don't think

At the end of 1951 Canada's 2,100,000 passenger automobiles were being driven 12,000,000,000 miles each year.

Back in 1910 it took 38 man-hours to produce an acre of corn yielding 30 bushels. Today, with modern machinery, the same acre, producing 33 bushels, requires only 17 man-hours.

for a minute all those chaps responsible for the Smoke Rings gifts will regret their all-out effort. Our small fry hockeyists certainly put the Hub on the hockey map. Hack Cain, along with Bill Cowley, were the stars of the recent N.H.L. "Old Timers" game in the Gardens.

Hack paced the scorers with a pair of goals and looked right sharp on TV. Back to softball. Mickey Smith reports Can. Legion will sponsor a Coronation softball tournament at the fair grounds June 2. It's open to Hub and Lake Simcoe sides.

Congrats to Alderman Jimmy Murray and his Aurora floodlight fund workers. Poles for the Aurora light installation went up last week. Jimmy and company hope to complete the job in May. Good show, men.

Sympathy Note: What can one say at a time like this. Just noted the recent passing of Jack Perry. Jack was one of the better short-stops in the Lake Simcoe league. I know when we pass along the sympathy of the sporting fraternity we're speaking for every player in the Simcoe circuit.

Schomberg Softballers Name Year's Officials

Schomberg softballers made their first move last week to get their house in order for a banner softball season when the club held its organization meeting for 1953.

Delegates decided to again enter the Peel-York Softball league race and the likely opposition will be Woodbridge, Nobleton, Kettleby, King City, Humber Summit and Bolton.

The following officials were named to guide the team in 1953. Elgin Hastings was named manager, Father Quesselle, coach; Ken Ellison, assistant coach, and George Johns secretary-treasurer. Schomberg hopes to again put a strong team on the field and expects to show several new faces on the lineup come opening day.

LADIES' SOFTBALL

Here's some up to the minute news from the ladies' softball front. The organization meeting of the Newmarket (Intermediate) ladies' softball club will be held Thursday, Apr. 30, at 7.30 p.m. in the basement of the town hall. Mr. Softball, Charlie VanZant, requests a full turnout so that plans for a banner season can be set up.

Charlie VanZant, president of the Barrie and District ladies' softball league, also buzzes in with the information that the league delegates will gather in Barrie April 29 to accept entries and put their house in order for the 1953 season.

BALL PRACTICE APR. 27

Hub intermediate baseballers attention! Better get those spikes out of the hall closet and your trusty finger mitt oiled up. Here's the good news you've been waiting for. The first intermediate hardball practice of the season has been scheduled for the fair grounds, Monday, April 27, at 7 chimes, daylight saving time.

Everyone interested in playing intermediate baseball this year is asked to be on hand for the initial practice reports Manager Ted Robinson.

AURORA SOFTBALLERS

The Aurora town league softball kettle is beginning to boil. League president Len Holman reports the decks have now been cleared for the league's annual meeting. The meeting is being held tonight (Thursday), April 23, at 8 p.m. in the town hall.

All teams wishing to enter are asked to have two representatives on hand so that a 1953 executive can be named. Plans for a major Aurora softball team for outside competition will also be discussed at tonight's meeting.

Fast Work On Floodlights: Al Snow, Don Best Arrange New Business Partnership

Many favorable comments have been heard concerning the fast work carried out in regard to the installation of floodlighting facilities. The six poles needed for lighting were in their places a few days following the inaugural meeting of the newly-formed Athletic Field board.

Charles Copland, hydro superintendent, and Jim Goulding, town foreman, amalgamated their staffs for the carrying out of the work, which was completed in one day. Jim Wilson contributed to the job by lending his truck and shovel.

The boys have been working hard in a limited period to get in as many subscriptions as possible, to liquidate the promise made to council that the committee would find $1,000 of the total sum of $4,000. A list of the subscribers up to Aurora News Press time will be found in other columns of the second Aurora News Page.

A Good Choice
The Athletic Field board is a very representative one. For a number of reasons we were especially pleased at the inclusion of Mr. John Willis, whose family has direct associations with Aurora for something like one hundred years. Since his appointment, we have heard numerous suggestions that John would make an excellent member of the town council and we heartily agree.

John Willis never hesitates to express an opinion on any subject that interests him. Nor is he easily bawled out. But this we can say from experience. However hard he may argue the point, he never introduces rancor or personal feeling into a discussion. He's as good a friend at the end of the argument as he was at its start.

Speaking of the acting secretary-treasurer to the Athletic Field board, Gardner Lloyd (Gardner, not "Gardiner" please) that was an odd comment the Banner carried about him last week. It described Gardner as "a man from outside Aurora."

The odd remark has amused many people who know that Mr. Lloyd was born in Aurora, educated here, and has hardly been away from the town. His family is one of the oldest in Aurora. Since Gardner Lloyd was in at the start of the floodlighting project, and has worked hard for its success, the remark of his being an outsider is hard to understand, except for the understanding that the oddest quirks and quiddities locate in the Banner.

Recreation Meeting
A meeting of the recreation commission was held on Thursday night, April 10, when the following members were in attendance: J. E. Buchanan, chairman, Les Steadman, vice-chairman, Don Glass, Councillors Davidson, Jones, D. J. Murray and John Offord, Cliff Corbett, S. C. King, A. Holmes and Rev. G. H. Purchase, who received a hearty welcome on his return by the chairman and old colleagues.

Others present were P. E. Perryment, recreation director, W. Mundell, assistant director, and W. H. Bell, secretary-treasurer. Much of the work carried out during the evening was of a routine nature. Reports on the work of committees were presented by Don Glass, W. Davidson, Les Steadman and the director.

On a special committee report concerning the purchase of children's equipment for playgrounds, the cost of which was provided by the $800 donation from the Rotary club, Mr. D. J. Murray enumerated a variety of these purchases, including kiddy climbers, teeter-totters, double swings and a merry-go-round. The selection had been made by the director, Mr. S. C. King and himself, said Mr. Murray. The report was unanimously approved.

Other Business
Mr. Don Glass stressed the importance of getting the playgrounds into early shape and this was agreed to. Considerable discussion arose on arrangements to be made between the commission and the agricultural society for a dance on Saturday night, May 16, the matter to be determined after further consultations. It was decided that the presentation of crests awarded in the swimming classes be made at a family night meeting.

New Aurora Company
We take pleasure in drawing the attention of our readers to a new company which has been formed in Aurora under the partnership of Mr. Al Snow and Mr. Don Best. It is the new firm of Snow and Best Heating Ltd. The location of the company is on Yonge St. north, where the installation of new machinery will meet the most modern requirements. Among other services which the new company will offer its customers are tin-smithing, air-conditioning, all varieties of sheet metal work, spare parts and fixtures. Extension of premises is under way to enable all orders to be handled expeditiously. All employees are factory-trained and additions to the staff are being made.

The new company is a development from the Snow Heating Appliances which has been in operation during the past seven years at the location of the new firm. Both Mr. Snow and Mr. Best are well-known in Aurora. Before the new partnership was completed, Mr. Best had been in the service of Bowser's hardware sheet metal department for the past six years. He has had 25 years' experience at his trade.

Beauty Culture
As will be noted from announcements, Miss Lesley Anne Atkins, the well-known beauty expert and consultant, will lecture in the Oddfellows hall at 8 o'clock on Monday night, April 27, and on the following day will be at the Willis Rexall drug store, where she will readily discuss beauty problems with ladies from Aurora and district.

There will be no charge for this service on Tuesday, April 28. The request for consultations will undoubtedly be heavy in view of Miss Atkins' fame as a specialist in her department of beauty culture.

Colored Faces
Recently we were obliged to a gentleman resident at Simcoe for a correction of an error we made concerning the agricultural department of the provincial government and which we duly acknowledged in these columns.

"Two other paragraphs in his letter also interested us, the first of these being: 'For some time now I have been a subscriber to the Era and Express and I do not hesitate to say that I have enjoyed reading all sections of this weekly paper. Since I was born at King, Ont., and spent 20 years of my life there, the activities of this particular area are dear to my heart. I also attended Aurora high school and therefore have many friends and acquaintances in your town.'"

The second paragraph reads: "I read the Aurora News Page regularly, not only the personal items, but the editorials and council reports. Your system of reporting a council meeting is unique, to say the least, and I do find it refreshing to follow this manner of reporting on council business. While you do not dish out many bouquets, I am sure your columns result in a good many well-colored faces."

It is, of course, always a pleasure to bring the blush of pride to the cheeks of the subject of anyone on whom a writer comments. And as for "well-colored" faces, many people, as we pointed out to our valued correspondent, spend money to achieve such facial attraction. If our writings achieve such results without cost to the beneficiaries, our reports are assuredly not in vain.

No Report
There is still no report from the Aurora board of trade on the public funds it holds. We wonder if there are any "well-colored" faces in that department of local activity? If not, we'll just have to keep on rubbing it in!

Orchestral Concert
On Tuesday night, April 28, at the Aurora District high school, the Coronation Little Symphony orchestra will give their first public concert. The program is a varied one and should provide a most entertaining evening. There will also be in attendance the male quartet consisting of the four N.C.O.'s of Toronto.

The orchestra has been rehearsing diligently for the past seven months under the leadership of conductor, Rod V. Smith, meeting together weekly for practice periods. We hope there will be a "full house" on Tuesday night, April 28. Doors open at 7:30 p.m.

EDITORIALS

APRIL 1951, APRIL 1953

Two years ago this present month we began our association with the Era and Express by founding the Aurora News Page. Thus we celebrate another birthday on a newspaper for which we have been proud to write. We have been proud, also, to serve the interests of our Aurora readers by giving them facts and opinions unadulterated by personal or advertising considerations.

We have received magnificent support from our Aurora readers. The proof of this is in the increasing sales of our newspaper. All attempts to down us have failed. Many such attempts have been made by the Banner and a small group of men of varying degrees of importance, none of it of a major quality and most of it self-assumed.

For some time now the Banner has refrained from publishing abusive anonymous letters charging us with "damaging the town" or, in Reeve Cook's more pious phrase, "damning it". It could be that the Banner management found these below-the-surface attacks most harmful to itself. Abusive anonymous letters carry no weight with intelligent readers.

One of our major undertakings during the past two years has been to report as fully as space would allow the doings of the town council. In carrying out that undertaking we have reported what we have heard and followed this up by commenting on it the following week. The comments are contained in our feature article, "Council Sidelights".

In noting another year of progress for Aurora News Page we sincerely thank our readers for their loyal support, and also thank all those who have taken any part in the sale of our newspaper. THAT $180 GUARANTEE

At this writing we don't know what council will finally do with regard to the motion that slumped so badly, when it was proposed that a grant of $180 be made to the C.N.R. in connection with the running of an excursion train from Toronto to Aurora on the steam train centennial date, May 16. Only three supporters favored the motion at the council meeting on April 6.

Whether council will review the proposal so favorably recommended by the mayor remains to be seen. To us the proposal seemed preposterous, a little "screwed" as Councillor Davidson described it. The steam train centennial is obviously a C.N.R. project. Its relationship to Aurora is no more than incidental. Considering the fuss the Banner has been making over the event, one might think that the 1853 steam train had been run for the benefit of the village of Aurora, as it was then.

Quite recently the C.N.R. paid over to the government a dividend of $142,327. That proof of profit does not suggest that the C.N.R. needs a backing of $180 from the Aurora town treasury. Yet the reeve, deputy-reeve and one councillor apparently thought it did. If the C.N.R. has not $180 worth of confidence in their proposed excursion train, why should Aurora hold the bag?

In the 100 years of steam train service, Aurora does not appear to have received many advantages. On enquiry we were informed that only three trains carry passengers daily between Aurora and Toronto, at 6 a.m., 9:48 a.m., and 5:49 p.m. Only three trains from Toronto carry passengers to Aurora, at 9:10 a.m., 5:50 p.m., and 11:30 p.m. The return fare is $1.00 and there is a weekend $1.55 return fare.

On such information it is scarcely possible to arouse any unusual degree of excitement for a centennial event that means so little in practical service to travellers in the year 1953.

HOLE-IN-CORNER METHODS

The council and a committee of the board of trade (inclusive of Mr. Pickering) held another of their closed meetings and made an inspection of the old public school, to which Dr. Henderson formerly gave the vivid pseudonym, the "old derelict". There is reason to believe that on this occasion a vote to hold a secret meeting was not a unanimous one.

These hole-in-the-corner consultations concerning the county seat are dishonoring Aurora and its citizens. In his position as warden of the county Mr. A. A. Cook should be above party. He should scorn the idea of playing the interests of one municipality off against another. As reeve of Aurora it is his legitimate right to promote the interests of the home town. As warden of the county he should be a symbol of impartiality. Above all, he should frown on secret meetings.

We hear that the board of trade is toying with the idea of handing over the public funds in its possession as bait to catch the county seat. We hear that the public school board is toying with the idea of handing over the "old derelict" to help catch the county seat. Hole-in-the-corner methods, conducted by those who should know better, are seriously damaging the reputation of Aurora. It is too bad.

COUNCIL REPORT

Public School Costs, Need For Town Re-assessing And Outstanding Taxes Debated

The mayor presided at a general meeting of council held on Monday night, April 20, at which Councillor Dale King, chairman of the finance committee, presented a budget that made history in Aurora. An increase of 15 mills over the figure of 1952 brought the mill rate for 1953 to an all-high of 72. Reeve Cook was absent from the meeting.

Among the correspondence read was a letter from Mr. B. D. Gilbert in which he complained that he had not been asked to tender for the new waterworks pick-up truck and wondered why.

Councillor D. J. Murray, chairman of the fire and water department, said there were two reasons why Mr. Gilbert had not been asked to tender. The first was that the G.M.C. was not, in their opinion, in the price range his committee needed and the second reason was that Mr. Gilbert could not expect to get all the business in town, which he, Mr. Murray thought, should be moved around. He said he was both disappointed and surprised that Mr. Gilbert had sent such a letter to council.

A motion to send Mr. Gilbert a letter of reply was adopted.

Aurora Bears
The mayor suggested that the $300 grant to buy sweaters for the Aurora Bears should be held over with a view to diverting the money to help a town fund for the forthcoming defence of Walter Fines.

Councillor Murray and Jones agreed that everything should be done to support the boy and these views were endorsed by all members of council.

The Budget
Councillor Dale King, finance committee chairman, introduced the 1953 budget, a complete report of which readers will find on the second Aurora News Page. In the course of his comments, Mr. King disclosed that $16,000 were outstanding in taxes, an increase of $1,000 over the previous year.

Considerable discussion took place on the budget figures. Councillor D. J. Murray said that the chief reason for the heavy increase of 15 mills over the previous year was to be found in the public school board expenditures.

Continuing his argument, Mr. Murray said that on the surface, it seemed that council had no control over public school expenditures but actually they had control if they wanted to exercise it. He claimed that there had been waste of money in the past and had calculations during the present period. He said that some years ago the public school board had let some $7,000 down the drain and for recent purposes the board had miscalculated costs by $35,000.

Councillor Murray reminded council that Mr. Bowser had returned $5,000 from his estimated contract, which, perhaps, another contractor would not have done. He said the present council, as far as its new members were concerned, was not responsible for the heavy mill increase.

Councillor King made a vigorous defence of the public school board, saying it was a properly elected body and had a right to make its own decisions. He said they couldn't have gone on with the old school and they had two fine schools now.

Councillor Davidson considered that both schools could have been modernized and continued in use at a great saving of taxpayers' money.

Deputy-reeve Murray said that the extra cost of education had to be taken into account. Replying to Councillor Murray, the deputy-reeve said the purchase of the land on George St. might prove of great value in the near future.

The mayor commended Councillor King and his committee on the budget, saying that the need for extra taxes had been met courageously. He drew attention to the excellent graph Mr. King had drawn up for ready understanding of mill rate percentages.

On a motion by Councillor King, seconded by Deputy-reeve Murray, the budget was unanimously adopted.

$16,000 Unpaid Taxes
Councillor Moffat drew attention to the $16,000 arrears of taxes and said this was a serious matter. If this considerable sum had been collected it could have meant a much smaller addition in the mill rate. Mrs. Moffat asked what council intended to do on the matter.

The mayor said a special meeting should be called and the list of delinquents considered and action taken to recover arrears. This was agreed to.

Senatovich Subdivision
Councillor D. J. Murray drew the attention of council to an important reservation that appeared in the plan and said that such reservation, amounting to one foot of land, could if permitted, give a power to the owner that was not in the draft plan which council had approved. Mr. Murray suggested that no services by the town be undertaken until such time as the matter was clarified.

The deputy-reeve and other members of council agreed that the reservation was not included in the draft plan. Council agreed not to proceed further until the whole matter was clarified and the planning board was requested to take steps accordingly.

New Truck
The mayor referred to a "little ceremony" that had taken place at the Delnash service station, when Councillors Murray and Jones attended with himself to hand the key of the new waterworks truck over to Joe McGhee. He said the boys were very happy over the new equipment.

To Install Floodlights At Aurora By May 15

Operation floodlight installation for the Aurora town park went into high gear April 13 when the poles were erected. Next step will be the actual installation of the floodlights. This work is expected to be carried forward without delay. A date around the middle of May is being mentioned as the probable date for the completion of the work.

Six poles, two behind home plate, two along the base lines and two along the foul lines in the outfield have been erected. The poles behind home plate are 40 feet, along the base lines 50 feet, and the outfield poles are 60 feet high. The poles have been erected on the diamond at the south west corner of the park. Plans call for a 24 light installation. Lights to be installed

Floodlights

Councillor Murray said all the reflectors would arrive during the week and the work completed immediately.
Street Lighting
Councillor Clarence Davis said council should make up its mind on the new street lighting and was supported by the deputy-reeve. Mr. Davis said it was imperative to go ahead with the matter and a resolution moved by himself, and seconded by Deputy-reeve Murray, was adopted for the preparation of a debenture by-law for mercury-vapor lighting in the centre of the town, the by-law to be ready for the next meeting of council.

Assessments
Councillor Davis said the town was badly in need of re-assessing, to which Councillor King replied that the reeve did not think this was a good year for re-assessments. Mr. Davis said he did not agree with the reeve's opinion. Councillor King said he thought their former assessor, Mr. Good, had the right ideas but used the wrong methods.

New Industries
Councillor W. Davidson spoke vigorously on the need for new industries, and asked what council was doing about it. The mayor said the board of trade was active in the matter.

Councillor Murray said the answer was always that the board of trade was looking after industry. He would like to know how many new industries the board of trade had brought in in the last few years, he said. The mayor said that the town itself had nothing to offer new industries as suitable land was privately owned. Councillor King said many people in town didn't want new industries.

Daylight Saving
Daylight saving time will be introduced in Aurora on April 25, midnight.

(The foregoing council proceedings will be reviewed in "Council Sidelights" in next week's issue of Aurora News Page).

are of the latest design. Three lights will go on each of the poles behind the plate, four each on the poles along the base lines and five each on the outfield poles.

The work of installing the lights will be under the direction of town hydro foreman, Charles Copeland.

"We ran into a minimum of trouble erecting the poles so we're hopeful the job will go right along without a hitch. We're still below our fund objective and are still accepting contributions," reports Floodlight Fund Chairman, Alderman Jim Murray.

The installation of floodlights will mark a big forward step in Aurora softball history and the Floodlight Fund Committee merit it "a well done tag" for their untiring efforts over the past winter.

The opening exercises of the new Zephyr public school took place at the new school on Monday evening, April 13. Mr. Hewlett, one of the trustees, gave the address of welcome to the parents and children and the people of school section No. 5, Scott township.

Rev. Wm. Thornloe dedicated the new school to the service of the community. Mr. W. Knight, B.A., B.Paed., public school inspector, gave a splendid address and declared the school open on Tuesday, April 14.

Gordon Rynard, on behalf of the community, gave an address, touching on some of the history of the old school which served this section for the past 89 years. Reeve Thaxter and Councilors Luke and Baln, on behalf of Scott township, spoke a few words. Mr. Lee, the contractor, also gave a short address. Mrs. C. Pickering, on behalf of the Women's Institute, presented the school section with an electric clock to be placed in the senior room. Mrs. Brammer, our popular pianist, favored the audience with two beautiful piano solos. The school is a one-story brick building and contains two class rooms, teachers' rooms, cloak rooms, wash rooms and all modern conveniences. All in all, it is a lovely building of which any community might well be proud.

The program and opening exercises will go down in history and be remembered in the years to come. The two teachers, Mr. Don Hewlett, principal and Mr. McQuaid, junior teacher, and others, helped to serve a lunch of sandwiches and coffee.

To Honor the Queen

Canadian Brownies and Guides, and those of Britain and the Commonwealth of Nations will pay tribute to their sister, Queen Elizabeth II, in her year of Coronation. They will adopt some project to exemplify active kindness to someone else and will be permitted to wear a special badge with gold crown emblem during 1953.

This information was conveyed by Commissioner Mrs. D. R. Gunn to Brownies and Guides at the first mother and daughter banquet of the King pack on April 8 at the United church. Thirty-seven were present, including Brownie leaders, Mrs. Gunn, members of the local association and the entertainers.

Mrs. Ewart Patton, L. A. chairman, presided at the head table. The leader, Brown Owl, Mrs. Marion Laing, thanked the mothers for attending and mentioned the cookie day on May 9. The banquet was a credit to those in charge. Misses Freda Dent and Shirley Rawlings, songsters and actresses, with Marilyn Cook, an accomplished piano accompanist, delighted the audience by giving four numbers.

Refuse Services

When M. A. Wilson asked the trustees to continue the village watermain west 75 feet to the end of Dew St., he was asked "to obtain information about the original village watermain contract from the township clerk."

Mr. Wilson wanted the village to pay for the cost of construction and suggested a four-inch pipe. This, he said, would fit in with any future subdivision in the area.

Trustees could not agree to his idea, because the "village is pretty well finished with paying for mains." Mr. Wilson said he plans to subdivide his property later.

Coronation Plans

At a meeting of a Coronation committee, chaired by D. M. Findlay, held last Sunday afternoon in the Legion rooms, a tentative program outline was drawn up in co-operation with the community.

"Recognition of the Coronation, June 2, is as important here as in any of the larger centres. We do not do much flag waving but it is a good day to show our feeling," commented Mr. Findlay.

The plan is to formally open and dedicate the new Legion club house if the building can be completed by that time. A parade will be formed to join up with local and district school children, to culminate in Memorial Park where the official salute will be taken. The children will give a Maypole or pageant entertainment, community singing will be held and refreshments served.

The Business Men's Association will be asked to supply street decoration, to decorate their own establishments and provide refreshments. A prize may be given for the best decorated home.

A second meeting will be held of the Coronation committee and others in the Legion club house on Sunday, April 26, at 2 p.m., D.S.T.

Seeks Hidden Drains

A special request is extended to village residents by King City trustees, that information on location and course of the main village drains be placed with the board. There are "hidden drains" which residents will know about.

"This information is essential in order to draw up a skeleton chart so that a master sketch can be compiled and preserved in the village," chairman Findlay points out. There are instances of flooding and water-filled basements and there is inadequate knowledge of the system of village drainage.

Water Main Connections

Tenders for contractors to make connection for water in King City from mains to the shut-off, will be advertised in three weekly papers with the information that applicants can apply to the village secretary for details of the plan.

The main and service by-law has arisen discussion because the standard of work done by contractors is not uniform. Trustees contend that plumbers have been charging different prices for construction.

Business Men's Organization

The executive of a new organization, known as King City Business Men's association, was drawn up on Tuesday, April 14, when Bruce Hall, insurance and real estate agent, was named president. Art Rigg of King City Cold Storage became vice-president; Gerry Gamble, sec.-treas., with Bob Walker and Stanley Watson added to the directors' board.

The executive will act for one year and meetings of the organization will be held in the Legion club house. The idea of forming a Chamber of Commerce was shelved, in preference to an independent organization for the first year. Immediate concern of the association is the organization of community activity to mark the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II on June 2.

Recreation Activities

The A.Y.P.A. of All Saints' church is arranging a "Maypole Twirl" on Friday evening, May 1, under the chairmanship of president Bruce Melness. The group intends to set up a badminton lawn, as well as organizing a softball team. The public oratory contest planned in the early spring will be carried over until autumn.

To Have Flag Pole

Mr. Harry Cunningham, a former member of the local school board, has kindly donated a flag pole to King City school. The school has its own Union Jack which will be raised as soon as the work is completed.

Anniversary Services

Anniversary services at King City United church will be held on Sunday, May 3 and on May 10, Mother's Day. Baptism will be conducted at King and Teston churches. The Lasky Fellowship Group heard an account of a trip to Florida made by Mr. H. E. Ross, when it met at the home of Bob Glass last Friday evening. Mr. H. G. Ratcliffe, King, showed his colored views of a trip to Florida to the Teston Fellowship on Monday night.

Miss Marjorie Jarvis who is spending the winter season in Toronto's College hospital on Sunday night. She has not been feeling well due to a heart condition. Her friends hope the rest will give results.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hunter gave a turkey dinner on Sunday, April 12, in honor of her father, Mr. Sydney Hibbs, Toronto, who celebrated his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Patton have another grandchild, the son of Elwood Patton and his wife Jean McClure Patton, Toronto.

Mrs. Eric B. Johnston is rejoicing in the birth of a grandson, born to Dr. and Mrs. Eric B. Johnston, on April 17, at West Lincoln Memorial hospital, Grimsby.

New Hydrants

Two hydrants on King St. E. will be fixed at once and fill will be installed over the village water main in front of Lester Brown's house. The expenditure comes from King City water-works account. Another hydrant will be placed midway between a hydrant at Fred Dent's and one south on Keele St.

Pavilion Ready By June

Brock Wray of Kettleby has been awarded the contract to dismantle the barn on the Dew property and to rebuild as a pavilion in King Memorial Park on behalf of the Lake Marie and King Athletic Assoc. The flooring will be polished cement, suitable for dancing or recreational purposes. In winter the surface will be flooded for ice skating but other times could be used for roller skating, etc.

Lake Marie will also purchase a new power mower to keep the park grounds in good shape this summer. The new pavilion will

Can't Build Walks Beyond Village Limits To Schoolhouse

The school board of S. S. 2, King, will be advised by King City village trustees that "the village does not extend to the north gate at the school and village work cannot extend past the village limits."

Village taxpayers could not be taxed for repairing the sidewalk that extends beyond the village limits in front of the school. Only 50 feet of the school property at the south end lies within the village, according to plan 58.

"We are willing to repair that part of the sidewalk leading north to the school that comes to the village limit," said streets superintendent R. D. McLeod.

The village trustees have been asked by the S. S. 2 board to grade the roadside embankment to a fence which school trustees plan to erect to stop children from racing from the north gate down the embankment and onto the busy highway.

Implement Storage

M. A. Wilson, King City implement dealer, is preparing a 2½ acre site purchased from the Newsome property, for construction of a storage and service building. A driveway will be built and work will begin as soon as possible.

William Walker

Mr. William Walker, 87, Teston, father of Bill Walker, proprietor of King City Grill, passed away on Sunday morning, April 19. The funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. M. R. Jenkinson, in Teston United church, with interment in Maple cemetery.

Mr. Walker was born on the property on which he has been residing and spent the greater part of his life in Vaughan township. He and his wife, the former Hattie Gray of King Tn., were married about 55 years.

Surviving are Mrs. Walker and four children, William of King, Mrs. Roy Wilson, Teston, Mrs. Walter Armstrong, Ridgetown, and Otter of Toronto. Ross Walker and his brother, the late Cecil Walker, King City, were nephews of the deceased.

A plot of land in Memorial Park was marked off last week, measuring 40 by 80 feet, which will comprise the site of a pavilion being erected by the Lake Marie Association. A. E. Kelley has been engaged to put in the cement block foundation and the cement glass flooring.

Peter Jarvis, a cadet lieutenant, is slated to go to Germany this summer on reserve service work. His second year pass arts exams will be completed next month at the University of Toronto.

Roy Robson, King City, has been engaged to teach at Oak Ridges school next September. He will be completing his Normal school course at Toronto shortly.

Wonderful response is coming through from Lasky, King City, Temperanceville and Oak Ridges and districts, for the preparation of a public Trend tea, in aid of the Canadian Cancer Society, on May 8, at the home of Mrs. Cecil Summerfeldt, third concession, King, north of Eaton Hall.

When the W.A. of the Anglican church sends a bale of clothing to "Old Sun", residential Indian school in Gleichen, Alta., each member will have a personal interest in the contents. Members saw slides of the school and the students who will be wearing the garments.

Mrs. Tetley gave a current study book of the W. A. and delegates were named to attend the annual diocesan from May 4 to 7 at Toronto. They are Mrs. Ray Burt, Mrs. F. Monson, Mrs. Dan Rawlings, Mrs. Scott and the president, Mrs. Alfred Gillham. The next meeting of the auxiliary has been set for Thursday, May 14, owing to the annual meeting of West York Deanery on May 21 at St. Philip's church, Etobicoke.

King Teacher Honored

In recognition of her 25th year as primary grade teacher in King school, S.S. 2, Miss Doris Patton was presented with a bouquet of

be ready in June.

Mrs. John Phillips of King and Fred J. Graham, Toronto, were bereaved on April 14 when their brother, John Graham, 70, Richmond Hill, passed away. The funeral service was held on the following Thursday with interment in Richmond Hill cemetery.

Bob Hall, a son-in-law of Mrs. Phillips, who is a farmer on the 4th concession near Maple, has been dangerously ill with virus pneumonia but is now improving.

Mrs. Marguerite Gellatly is unable to take her classes at Temperanceville school through illness. Mrs. Len Shropshire, Eversley, is supply in the meantime. Miss Norma Legge, a teacher in Rummymede public school, Toronto, underwent an operation on both eyes and is at her home in King, recuperating satisfactorily.

King City W.I. will consider a question asked by King Community association, whether the branch "would invest money in a proposed site for a community centre on Patton St." The W.I. has representation in the K.C.A. and a few years ago started a reserve fund to help with a proposed hall.

On 23 Acres of Land Raises 169 Cows

If you had only 23 acres of pasture land, would you dare to undertake to raise 169 head of dairy cattle on it? H. G. Wilde, Lennox, Massachusetts, did just that by invoking the old proverb of taking the mountain to Mohammed rather than Mohammed to the mountain.

Wilde's Jersey herd hasn't been on an outdoor pasture for years. Instead, he keeps the cows in the barn almost the year round, feeding them field-chopped grasses and legumes harvested from the 23 acres twice daily with a field chopper equipped with a cutter bar.

The small acreage is heavily fertilized and often yields four cuttings a year. Cattle are fed all the grass they can eat plus four or five pounds of dry hay per head per day. In addition, Wilde is able to market 150 tons of hay per year. The animals are exercised in a 14-acre "lounge" paddock apart from the 23 acres used for grass production.

The herd's production figures last year showed an average on 163 cows of 9,673 pounds of milk and 517.7 pounds of butter fat on twice-a-day milking.

Wilde feels that barn feeding coupled with the practice of keeping his herd stabled at night results in higher and more uniform production. Keeping the herd in ventilated and fly-free stables helps avoid production slumps due to bad weather and irritation by a wide variety of flies.

He maintains that rotational grazing with a herd of 160 would involve considerable fencing, labor and sizeable acreage. Large pastures mean long walks to and from the barn and a cow could easily "walk off" plenty of production.

WANT ZONING FOR KING CITY STARTED FIRST

King City village trustees have approved a motion to "request King township council that its planning board, which is being appointed, concentrate its first efforts on King City and vicinity for purposes of a zoning by-law."

"A planning board could draft a zoning by-law under the municipal act for this section of the township if only to serve as a temporary stop-gap, until a permanent law is ready and the whole township is zoned," declared chairman D. M. Findlay.

He said a planning board could do the spade work to recommend local zoning now and later on. The whole township would be included.

The purpose is to have King City and vicinity zoned without waiting until "all the i's are dotted and the t's crossed in the township zoning by-law. That would take years probably," suggested chairman Findlay.

A year ago council was requested to consider King City area zoning. Since that time the request has been repeated. "We have information that the township has been granted permission to appoint a planning board and that the municipality of the township of King has been declared a defined sub-planning area," trustees state.

The resolution was moved by trustee R. D. McLeod and seconded by trustee Carson.

WANT ZONING FOR KING CITY STARTED FIRST

King City village trustees have approved a motion to "request King township council that its planning board, which is being appointed, concentrate its first efforts on King City and vicinity for purposes of a zoning by-law."

"A planning board could draft a zoning by-law under the municipal act for this section of the township if only to serve as a temporary stop-gap, until a permanent law is ready and the whole township is zoned," declared chairman D. M. Findlay.

He said a planning board could do the spade work to recommend local zoning now and later on. The whole township would be included.

The purpose is to have King City and vicinity zoned without waiting until "all the i's are dotted and the t's crossed in the township zoning by-law. That would take years probably," suggested chairman Findlay.

A year ago council was requested to consider King City area zoning. Since that time the request has been repeated. "We have information that the township has been granted permission to appoint a planning board and that the municipality of the township of King has been declared a defined sub-planning area," trustees state.

The resolution was moved by trustee R. D. McLeod and seconded by trustee Carson.

Retire on $200 A Month for Life!

A popular Halifax grocer and his wife recently retired on $200 a month for life. Their dreams of security and comfort have come true, thanks to a decision the grocer made in 1923. It was then he took out a Confederation Life Insurance Pension Plan which included $20,000 insurance protection. He had just opened his store . . . and with the baby and the payments on his home, he had only so much left for retirement plans. It was a pleasant surprise when his Confederation Man told him how easily his dreams could come true—without risks or investment worries.

It's IMPORTED

...So what?

Side by side on the merchants' shelves—Canadian materials and "imported" goods. Do you get any advantage when you go for "imported" products?

In textiles, at least, the answer is simple. Canadian mills turn out fabrics and yarns that match or better the production of any other textile country of the world in quality.

They are made by Canadians who are paid good Canadian wages; they are designed to please Canadian tastes, meet Canadian needs.

This is no plea to shun "imported" materials. They should be considered along with domestic products by every Canadian consumer, but on a strict what-do-I-get-for-my-dollar basis.

Ask for Canadian textiles if you want the best for your money.

Try To Hold New Industry In King, Offer Concession

The King City Business Men's Association has pledged its support to Watson Food Products in their enterprise to establish a potato chip factory in the village.

Village trustees have approved a resolution that "no water rate charge be levied against Watson Food Products until Dec. 31, 1957, if they locate their industry in the village." The resolution was moved by trustee R. D. McLeod and seconded by trustee W. A. Carson after C. Bruce Hall, president of King City Business Men's Association, asked if "trustees would consider giving Mr. Stanley Watson concessions within their jurisdiction, if he located a $100,000 potato chip factory in the village. Mr. Hall pointed out that Mr. Watson had had attractive offers from several Ontario towns wanting him to establish his factory, including Richmond Hill and Aurora.

Trustee McLeod said that a water rate concession would be a token gift to Mr. Watson and would give him encouragement to build. The resolution was moved by trustee McLeod and seconded by trustee W. A. Carson, at an extra meeting of commissioners held Monday night to deal with matters that were left over from a previous meeting.

Mr. Hall, spokesman for the association, stated that a letter has been forwarded to Mr. Watson, pledging the support of business men in his enterprise to build a factory in King. There were 28 signatures and more will be added, he stated.

Mr. Watson states he has not yet decided whether he will establish his factory in King City or not as he had originally planned. He purchased a site of land for that purpose this spring. "I am certainly glad that the businessmen's association is taking such an interest in my proposed project and that many others are manifesting a clear-cut opinion as to why they want my industry here," he declared.
